

Seventh Sunday of Easter

The Ascension of the Lord

Gospel: Matthew 28:16-20

"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations."

We all know Our Lord's prayer. This is prayed by Christians all over the world, because God is Father to us all.

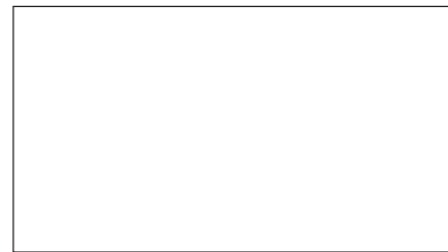

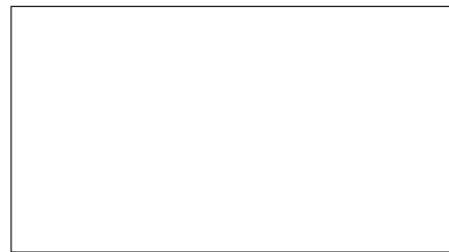

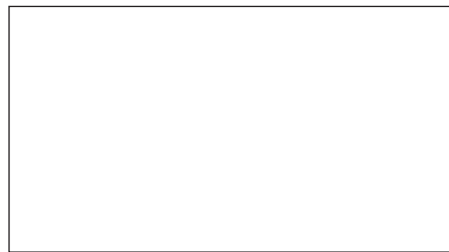

This is the first part of the prayer in different languages:

Baba Yetu uliye mbinguni, Jina lako litukuzwe; (Swahili)

Notre Père qui es aux cieux, Que ton Nom soit sanctifié (French)

אָבִינוּ שְׁבַשְׁמַיִם יִתְקַדֵּשׁ שְׁמֶךָ: (Hebrew)

Draw the flag of the countries which speak this language and pray for them.

Pentecost Sunday

Gospel: John 20:19-23

"Receive the Holy Spirit."

In the Sacrament of Confirmation, we receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Match the gift with the sentence which best describes it.

Wisdom

The Holy Spirit helps me choose between right and wrong.

Understanding

The Holy Spirit gives me the courage to follow Jesus and live a good Christian life.

Council / Right Judgement

The Holy Spirit helps me to learn more about God and deepen my relationship with him.

Fortitude

The Holy Spirit helps me to love God, daily more and more, and in this way, I will worship him and honour him in all that I do. I am an instrument in his hands.

Knowledge

The Holy Spirit helps me understand what God wants me to say. He helps me understand what God is telling me through Jesus, the Bible and the Church.

Piety

The Holy Spirit helps me to know what is right and what God wants me to do.

Fear of the Lord

The Holy Spirit helps me to avoid doing anything which offends God. The Holy Spirit helps me to trust God and appreciate the beauty of life.

A Wholesome Easter!

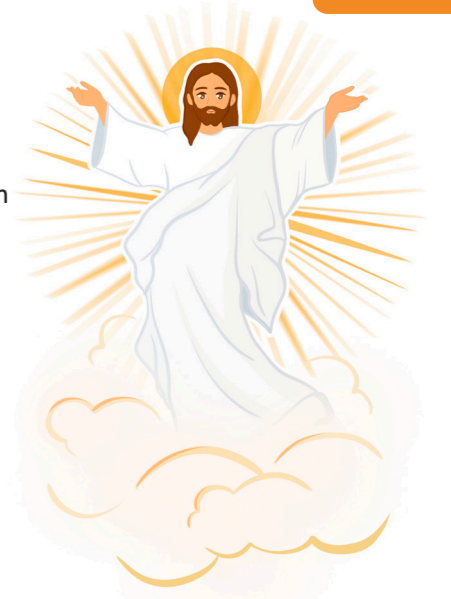

2026

Jesus has risen from the dead! He has risen indeed! HALLELUJAH!
Easter is a time of great celebrations! What was impossible, happened. Christ rose from the dead. It is a time to celebrate life. It is a time, to remember when we are passing from difficult times. It reminds us that darkness will pass, light and joy will reappear.

Let us allow our hearts to be filled with joy, hope and life!

Third Sunday of Easter

Gospel: Luke 24:13-35 "He walked with them."

Have you ever heard the poem, "Footprints in the sand" by Mary Stevenson?
Read it and then tell the story to someone else.

One night I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord. Many scenes from my life flashed across the sky. In each scene I noticed footprints in the sand. Sometimes there were two sets of footprints, other times there were one set of footprints. This bothered me because I noticed that during the low periods of my life, when I was suffering from anguish, sorrow or defeat, I could see only one set of footprints. So, I said to the Lord, "You promised me Lord, that if I followed you, you would walk with me always. But I have noticed that during the most trying periods of my life there have only been one set of footprints in the sand. Why, when I needed you most, you have not been there for me?" The Lord replied, "The times when you have seen only one set of footprints, is when I carried you."

The message is clear. When we are passing through rough times, it is Our Lord who is carrying us. He will never leave us alone!

Fourth Sunday of Easter

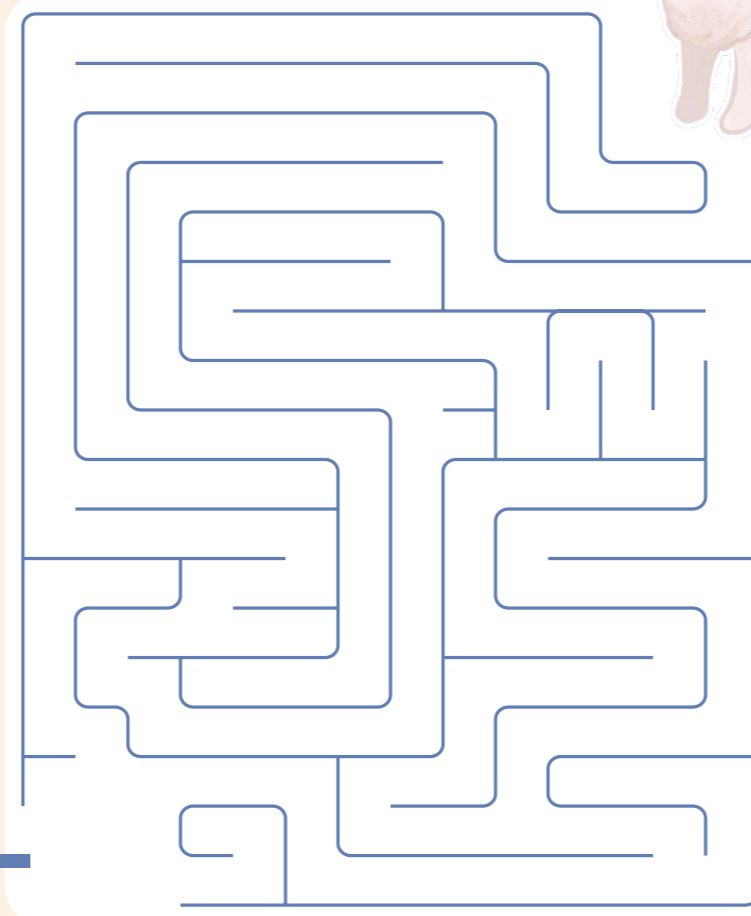

Vocation Sunday

Gospel: John 10:1-10

"The sheep follow him, because they recognise his voice."

Help the sheep find its way back to the shepherd.

Fifth Sunday of Easter

Gospel: John 14:1-12

"I am the way, and the truth and the life."

Learn and say this prayer regularly.

Lord, you are the way that leads to the Father, Lord, have mercy.
Christ, you are the truth that brings joy to the world, Christ, have mercy.
Lord, you are the life that renews the world. Lord, have mercy.

Give examples of actions that:

Lead you to Jesus

- _____
- _____
- _____

Lead you away from Jesus

- _____
- _____
- _____

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Gospel: John 14:15-21

"I will not leave you orphans."

Fill in the blanks to finish a sentence, which we heard in today's Gospel.

"If you _____ me, you will keep my _____.

And I will ask the _____, and he will give you another _____ to be with you _____."

Advocate always commandments
Father love
